

ADULT FAITH FORMATION QUESTIONNAIRE

Over the past several months, Fr. John has reminded us regularly that while we are building a new church building, the “church” which is eternal is within each of us individually and within our community. He has also reminded us how important Adult Faith Formation is in building that eternal church. Therefore, it is a good time to take stock of our own “construction project”. This fall we will once again be offering adult faith formation opportunities. In order to make them most convenient, available and interesting for you, we request that you answer the few questions below.

1. Are you interested in adult faith formation? Yes _____ No _____
2. If so, would you regularly attend the sessions? Yes _____ No _____
3. Which times are most convenient for you to attend
_____ Wednesday evenings at 530 PM (pot luck followed by class at 600)

TOPICS:

There has been some discussion about going deeper into our Catholic Christian faith beyond the dogmas and doctrines we all have learned throughout our Catholic life. Below are a couple suggested topics which are under consideration. Most of the sessions begin with a DVD followed by discussion.

1. “The Mystery of God: Who God Is and Why It Matters” by Bishop Robert Barron. This is a six lesson series which explores what we mean by “God”; the existence of God and how we defend Him in the modern world; attributes of God; God and the problem of evil; and a God of love.

2. “Seven Great Schools of Catholic Spirituality” by Fr. Anthony Ciorra, Ph.D. This is a natural follow on to the above series. It is a 21 lesson series (we will pick and choose) which explores ways to develop a deeper relationship with God that goes beyond dogma, doctrine, rules and regulations. In the last 40-50 years interest in spirituality within the Catholic Church has grown significantly. These DVD’s explore Benedictine, Franciscan, Dominican, Ignatian, Carmelite and other spiritualities.
